

Luncheon Presentation by Fulbright Scholar and Visiting Professor István Bujalos

The Department of Social Science at New York City College of Technology will host a luncheon for Distinguished Hungarian Philosopher and Fulbright Scholar István Bujalos, who is teaching at City Tech this fall as a Visiting Professor, on Thursday, November 12, 2009, from 12:45 to 2:15 p.m., in the Atrium 632 Faculty & Staff Lounge, 300 Jay Street (at Tillary), Downtown Brooklyn. Seating is limited and reservations are required.

Professor Bujalos will dialogue with the College community and other guests on the topic of "Lessons from the Bologna Process in Europe." He served as dean of faculty of humanities and social sciences at the University of Debrecen, Hungary, during a time of great change in the European educational system, especially in Hungary, and will share his experiences with luncheon guests.

To RSVP and for additional information, contact Dr. Laureen Park, assistant professor of philosophy, City Tech Department of Social Science, at 718.260.4953 or lpark@citytech.cuny.edu.

Luncheon Dialogue with Fulbright Scholar and Visiting Professor István Bujalos

Thursday, November 12, 2009
12:45 to 2:15 p.m.

New York City College of Technology
Atrium 632 Faculty & Staff Lounge
300 Jay Street (at Tillary)
Downtown Brooklyn