

New York City College of Technology

UPCOMING EVENTS

DECEMBER 2009

ALL MONTH

Dental Hygiene Clinic

10:00am-4:00pm, Mondays through Fridays through December 14 when College is open, Pearl Building 2nd Floor, 259 Adams Street. Low-cost/free services. By appointment. College community/general public. Information/appointment 718.260.5074.

Immigration Clinic

10:00am- 4:00pm, Mondays through Fridays when College is open, Namm Hall 622, 300 Jay Street. Free services. By appointment/walk-in. College community/ general public. Information/appointment 718.260.5597.

Eyeglasses Clinic

10:00am-noon, Mondays & Wednesdays/ 6:00-8:00pm, Wednesdays when College is open, Pearl Building 3rd Floor, 259 Adams Street. Reduced-cost services. By appointment. College community/general public. Information/appointment 718.260.5298

DEC 3

Theatre for One: A Unique Theatrical Experience

12:30-6:00pm, Voorhees Theatre, 186 Jay Street. Features performances of five minutes each with a five-minute transitional intermission between each performance. Free. College community/general public. Seating limited. Information 718.260.5595.

Anna Nurse Culinary Workshop

12:45-2:00pm, Thomas Ahrens Amphitheater, Namm Hall 2nd Floor, 300 Jay Street. Seating limited; reservations required. Presentation by Daisy Martinez, author and host of TV show "Daisy Cooks." Free. Seating limited; reservations required. College community/general public. Information and RSVP 718.260.5630.

Bi-Annual Student Speaking Competition

(Round One) 1:00-2:00pm, Namm Hall 1001, 1003, 1017, 1018, 1019, 1020 and 1033; (Round Two), 3:00-4:00pm, Atrium Amphitheater, 300 Jay Street. Department of Humanities hosted student speaking competition for 20-30 students enrolled in Effective Speaking, SPE 1330. Finalists will receive cash prizes and certificates. Free. College community only. Information dscannell@citytech.cuny.edu or jadavis@citytech.cuny.edu.

DEC 4

8th Annual CUNY Information Technology Conference

9:15am-4:00pm, John Jay College of Criminal Justice, 899 Tenth Avenue, Manhattan. "Instructional/Information Technology in CUNY: Managing Complexity." CUNY faculty, staff and administrators. Free. Registration required. To register and information at <http://www.convergemag.com/events/CUNY-8th-Annual-IT-Conference.html>.

DEC 7

Hospitality Management B-Tech Celebration

5:30-9:00pm, Atrium Amphitheater & Janet Lefler Dining Room, 300 Jay Street. Awards presentation/graduation celebration for Hospitality Management graduating class. By invitation only. Information 718.260.5638 or kgoodlad@citytech.cuny.edu.

DEC 8

College Council Meeting

12:45-2:00pm, Atrium Amphitheater, 300 Jay Street. College community/general public. Information 718.260.4963.

DEC 10

Ursula C. Schwerin Library Cinem@tech Film Series Screening

12:45pm, Multimedia Resource Center, Atrium 431, 300 Jay Street. "The Big Sellout." Free. College community/general public. Information 718.260.5481.

Holiday Music with Suzi

10:30-11:30am, Atrium Amphitheater, 300 Jay Street. Musical performance by singer Suzi Shelton for Our Children's Center clients. By invitation only. Information 718.260.5192.

Mathematics Seminar

1:00-2:00 pm, Namm Hall 723, 300 Jay Street. "Teaching Applied Mathematics at City Tech." Presentation by Professor Jonathan Natov. Free. Seating limited. College community/general public. Information 718.260.5380.

History of Science Presentation

12:30-2:00pm, Atrium Amphitheater, 300 Jay Street. Presentation on “A Defining Moment in the History of Science and Mathematics” by Professors Djafar Mynbaev and Arthur Kramer. Come find out about a defining moment that occurred almost 400 years ago and the two brilliant people who tried to make mathematics and the world around them more understandable for their and future generations. Free. Light refreshments. College community/general public. Information 718.260.5927.

DEC 11

NAACP Tribute to Access for Women Program & Director Nona Smith

9:00am, Brooklyn Borough Hall, 209 Joralemon Street. NAACP 100th anniversary year reception and press conference tribute to New York City College of Technology’s Access for Women Program (federal stimulus grant awardee) and Director Nona Smith. Free. Reservations required. College community. Information and RSVP at 347.721.2481 or coranjames@gmail.com.

DEC 17

Chanukah Celebration

1:00-2:30pm, Atrium 632 Faculty & Staff Lounge, 300 Jay Street. Annual Jewish Faculty & Staff Association-hosted Chanukah Celebration. Come taste the culture of Chanukah and join in saluting Jewel Trowers Escobar and the City Tech Foundation. Free. Donations to support JFSA educational programs welcomed. College community/general public. Information 718.260.5837.

DEC 19

College Now Workshop Curriculum Day

10:00am-noon, Voorhees Hall 2nd Floor Lounge/Cafeteria, 186 Jay Street. Workshop on exemplary models of how students learn at City Tech for College Now students, family members and instructors and staff. Free. Information 718.260.5206 or tcheng@citytech.cuny.edu.

Travel directions to City Tech: Subway IND: A, C, F to Jay Street/Borough Hall; IRT: 2, 3, 4, 5 to Borough Hall; BMT: M, R to Lawrence Street; BUS: B57, B65, B69, B75 and other buses to Downtown Brooklyn