

The Social Science Department at City Tech announces its new

History Minor

The History minor provides students with the opportunity to study history more intensively than would otherwise be permitted, and facilitates the mastery of skills in analysis, research, writing and critical thinking. Upon completion of the requirements, students can graduate with an official "History minor" noted on their academic transcripts starting in the Fall semester 2024.

The History minor requires 15 credits of coursework: 5 courses from the following menu of three credit courses in History, African-American or Latin American studies. At least 4 of the 5 courses must be designated as HIS and a minimum of 1 of these courses must be an HIS 3000 level course requiring a research paper. These courses fulfill multiple General Education and Pathways requirements, and they can also fulfill requirements for Interdisciplinary (ID) Study, Writing Intensive (WI) or Capstone courses. All courses must be completed with a grade of C or better.

US History (US Experience in its Diversity, Common Core):

- HIS 1110 US History to 1865
- HIS 1111 US History since 1865
- HIS 2502 History of Foodways in America
- HIS 3208/HIS3208ID Immigration History
- HIS 3209/HIS3209ID History of Technology
- HIS 3310 Environmental History of North America

World History (World Cultures and Global Issues, Common Core):

- HIS 1101 The Origins of Western Civilization
- HIS 1102 Foundations of the Modern World 1400-1900
- HIS 1103 The Modern World Since 1900
- HIS 1501 The Origins of Islamic Civilization
- HIS 1502 Islamic Empires 1000-1800
- HIS 1503 The Modern Middle East and North Africa
- HIS 3402/HIS 3402ID Topics in Modern World History, 1945-present

AFR and LAS (WCGI and USED):

- AFR 1460 Early African History (WCGI)
- AFR 1461 Modern African History (WCGI)
- AFR 1465 Early African American History (USED)
- AFR 1466 Modern African American History (USED)
- AFR 1467 Afro-Caribbean History (WCGI)
- AFR 2402/AFR2402ID The Heritage of Imperialism (WCGI)
- LATS 1461 Latin American History

For more information on applying for a history minor, contact Prof. Cuordileone at Kyle.Cuordileone47@citytech.cuny.edu

