

Managing Finances During Your College Career

To assist you we have collected some tips for minimizing your debt as a college student. Some of them may not be fun to hear; however you might want to consider it an investment in your future.

» Avoiding Debt in College (pdf)

City Tech also offers a variety of scholarships to entering freshmen students. Many of these scholarships are based on academic merit and/or financial need. Additionally, there are a number of scholarships available to undocumented students.

Students who wish to be considered for need based scholarships must file the current year's Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) www.fafsa.gov. Receipt of a scholarship may affect the amount of state or federal aid for which you may be eligible.

» Learn more about scholarships