Gap in actual and predicted three-year graduation rate of associate full-time first-time freshmen (completed at college of entry)

	Fall 2014	Fall 2015	Fall 2016	Fall 2017	Fall 2018

Note: Predicted rates are based on student characteristics such as Pell status, high school GPA, and special program participation (e.g., SEEK, CD, and ASAP). Actual rates that are significantly higher than predicted rates indicate that a college is graduating more students than expected, given the socio-economic characteristics and academic preparation of the students it serves. "#" indicates that the actual rate is not significantly different from the predicted rate (estimated at the 5% confidence level). Starting in 2019, the predicted rates were modified to account for ASAP participation. In previous years, ASAP participation was not included in the student characteristics used to estimate a predicted graduation rate. Comprehensive colleges are excluded from this performance adjusted analysis because students at comprehensive colleges are more likely to transfer into baccalaureate programs without first earning an associate degree than students in community colleges.

Actual rates that are significantly higher than predicted rates indicate that a college is graduating more students than expected, given the socio-economic characteristics and academic preparation of the students it serves. "#" indicates that the actual rate is not significantly different from the predicted rate (estimated at the 5% confidence level).

ASAP also admits students in the spring.

Note: ASAP enrollment is provided each semester by ASAP partner colleges and is verified in CUNYfirst. Students are considered officially enrolled in ASAP if they are enrolled in the program and in classes at the college as of the census date each semester. Historically, ASAP has accepted students as first-time freshmen or as continuing/transfer students with up to 15 credits. In the most recent academic year (2021-22) ASAP accepted continuing/transfer students with up to 30 credits. Credits earned while in high school prior to matriculation do not count toward this credit limit. Total enrollment for the academic year represents the unique number of students served by ASAP each year. It is calculated as the sum of the total fall enrollment plus the number of students who newly joined ASAP in the spring. Students can remain enrolled in ASAP for up to three years at all partner colleges. At the College of Staten Island and Medgar Evers College, students may be eligible to remain in ASAP for a fourth year to complete their bachelor's degree if they meet the criteria for this fourth year as set by each college.

Pillar: College Readiness

One of the best predictors of college success is entering prepared for college-level studies. CUNY will work with its partners to help ensure that a larger number of entering students are prepared, starting with early education and assisting them up to and through high school.

Goal 1: CUNY will strengthen its partnership with the city's schools to ensure more high school graduates are college ready, and, for those who are not, CUNY will improve the effectiveness of its remediation programs.

Annual averages are calculated as the number of peer-reviewed works reported divided by the number of faculty who reported. University averages include scholarship at the graduate and professional schools. Beginning with 2020-21, average scholarly works changed from calendar year reporting to academic year reporting in response to a request from college provosts to align PMP reporting with other processes that utilize scholarship data and to allow more current data to be included. See the Technical Appendix for a description of scholarship and creative activity.

Note: Annual averages are calculated as the number of peer-reviewed works reported divided by the number of faculty who reported. University averages include scholarship at the graduate and professional schools. Beginning with 2020-21, average scholarly works changed from calendar year reporting to academic year reporting in response to a request from college provosts to align PMP reporting with other processes that utilize scholarship data and to allow more current data to be included. See the Technical Appendix for a description of scholarship and creative activity.

Note: Percentage is computed as the number of student (instructional) FTEs in undergraduate classes taught by full-time faculty divided by the total number of student (instructional) FTEs in all undergraduate classes. Instructional FTEs reflect enrollments in both the fall and spring semesters of a given academic year. Instruction by full-time professors (all ranks including chairs), instructors and lecturers is counted as instruction delivered by full-time faculty. Instruction in winter session sections is included only for full-time faculty whose teaching in the winter is part of their contractual workload (in which case, instructional FTEs are added to both the numerator and the denominator). Other winter session classes are excluded. Instructional FTE's are credited to the faculty member's college of appointment except for those appointed to the Graduate Center, the School of Journalism, and the Law School; their instructional FTEs are credited to the college where instruction took place. College Now sections are excluded.

The University totals include voluntary contributions for the graduate schools and for Macaulay Honors College but do not reflect fundraising for CUNY Central Office initiatives. Lehman and BMCC received $30M each from MacKenzie Scott. Starting FY 2020, CUNY's School of Labor & Urban Studies now reports their fundraising separately from CUNY's School of Professional Studies. Fundraising data for FY 2020 for Medgar Evers College was not available at the time of 2020 Fiscal Year End Comprehensive Fundraising Summary Report.

Technical Appendix

This technical appendix provides additional information for some of the metrics included in the 2021-22 Performance Management Process (PMP) Data Book.

Access and Completion

A.4 CUNY colleges will launch college momentum campaigns to raise on-time graduation rates.

The metrics in this section are designed to capture progress toward the goals of CUNY's momentum campaign, which include increasing the percentage of students who complete Gateway Math and English courses in their first year and the percentage who accumulate 30 credits by the end of their first year.

- Timing of metrics: We include two versions of most momentum metrics: the percentage of fall full-time freshmen who achieved the goal by the end of the first year (at the end of the summer term), and the percentage of fall full-time freshmen who achieved the goal by the end of the spring term (before the summer term). CUNY encourages students to earn credits during the summer, and the momentum campaign targets were set with summer participation in mind. Credits earned during the summer also count toward a student being considered on-track for graduation for purposes of Excelsior scholarship eligibility. Results from the summer are not available for the most recent fall freshman cohort when the PMP is produced, so we include metrics with results through the spring term to show how the most recent freshman cohort's results to date compare to those of previous cohorts at a comparable point in the year.
- Definition of Gateway Courses: Gateway English courses are those that satisfy the English Composition requirement of the Pathways Common Core, as identified by the CUNYfirst requirement designation codes "RECR", "RECD" or "RECC." Gateway Math courses are those that satisfy the Mathematical and Quantitative Reasoning requirement of the Pathways Common Core, as identified by the CUNYfirst requirement designation codes "RMQR", "RMQD" or "RMQC."
- Inclusion of pre-matriculation credits: The credit accumulation and gateway completion metrics count credits and course equivalencies earned before matriculation (e.g., courses completed and credits earned through College Now courses or Advanced Placement tests). We determined that it was appropriate to count these credits and course completions in measures of academic momentum because they count toward graduation requirements, and toward being on track for graduation for purposes of Excelsior scholarship eligibility. They also reflect the extensive work that CUNY does to offer dual enrollment opportunities (i.e., College Now and ECI courses) to high school students.
- Context metrics (earning 20 credits in the first year): earning 30 credits in the first year is a rough indicator of whether a student is on-track for on-time graduation (by earning 60 credits in two years or 120 credits in four years). We also include the percentage of students who have earned 20 credits in their first year as a context metric to indicate how many students are on-track to graduate within 150% of expected time. We prioritize the percentage earning 30 credits, rather than 20, as the main metric to encourage early academic momentum. Equated credits/hours for developmental courses are excluded. We expect the 20/30 benchmarks to be more attainable as remediation reform gets further along and fewer students take standalone non-credit, developmental courses.

The PMP metrics are designed to capture key performance indicators that are useful for annual review of college performance. They are not intended to capture all the information that colleges need to monitor and manage their own performance throughout the year, and we expect that individual colleges are also monitoring additional metrics and tracking them on a semester-by-semester basis. Additional metrics may include the percentage of credits that students enroll in and complete at their college (excluding pre-matriculation credits) and the percentage who are on track to earn the credits required for graduation beyond their first year (e.g., at the end of year 2, at the end of year 3, and so on).

- p. 32: Student experiences taking courses at campuses other than their home college

The Student Experience Survey was administered to a randomly selected sample of 50% of CUNY undergraduates enrolled in a degree/certificate program in the spring 2022 semester who were 18 years of age or older (N=81,554). The survey was conducted online with all contacts sent to the students' preferred email between April and May, including an invitation and several reminders. A total of 8,916 students responded, a response rate of 10.9%. The responses were weighted by college, based on logistic regression modeling that included gender and age.

A.6 CUNY will double its three-year graduation rate for associate degrees and raise by ten points the six-year graduation rate for baccalaureate programs.

- p. 47-50: Three-year graduation rate of students who transferred from an associate degree program with a degree to a CUNY baccalaureate program (tracked from semester of transfer); Three-year graduation rate of students who transferred from an associate degree program without a degree to a CUNY baccalaureate program (tracked from semester of transfer); Percentage of transfers from associate program with a degree to a CUNY baccalaureate program who complete a baccalaureate degree within 3 years of transfer; Percentage of transfers from associate program without a degree to a CUNY baccalaureate program who complete a baccalaureate degree within 3 years of transfer

The underlying data source for these indicators is the table created for the IPEDS Outcome Measures report (IRDB_DW.WC_IRA_OUTCOMES_HST_D), which looks back at enrollment records to remove students who are coded as transfers despite having actually entered that college as a first-time freshmen. The transfers with a degree are deduplicated to only include most recent associate degree awarded. Excludes transfers from an associate degree program who have a CUNY baccalaureate degree prior to transfer.

College Readiness

B.1 CUNY will strengthen its partnership with the city's schools to ensure more high school graduates are college ready, and, for those who are not, CUNY will improve the effectiveness of its remediation programs.

- p. 64: Percentage of fall first-time freshmen enrolled of those accepted

This indicator uses the race/ethnicity as reported in the application data because we do not have imputed race/ethnicity data for applicants who did not enroll. For methodological simplicity, gender is also reported as indicated in the application data.

Following the methodology used in the IRDB, applicants whose gender is unknown or those reporting a gender other than male or female are recoded as male. First-time freshmen not matching back to the application data for the term of enrollment have been excluded to avoid artificially inflating yield rates. Beginning in the fall 2019 term, data are reported from the CUNYfirst application.

Career Readiness

C.2 CUNY will make pragmatic experiential learning a signature component of a CUNY education.

- p. 74-75: Percentage of undergraduate students who participated in an internship, Percentage of undergraduate students who participated in a paid internship

The Internship and Career Readiness Survey was administered across all CUNY campuses in spring 2019. All undergraduate students enrolled in a degree program, ages 18 or older, were invited to participate (N=202,738). The response rate was 11.3% (N=22,818). The responses were weighted by college, class standing, full-time/part-time status, ethnicity, gender, degree level, special program status, and interactions between college and all the other variables using a multilevel structure.

The Student Experience Survey was administered to a randomly selected sample of 50% of CUNY undergraduates enrolled in a degree/certificate program in the spring 2022 semester who were 18 years of age or older (N=81,554). The response rate was 10.9% (8,916). The responses were weighted by college, based on logistic regression modeling that included gender and age.

In both surveys, students were asked about participation in experiential learning opportunities (ELO) including: paid internship; unpaid internship; cooperative education; service learning; community service; clinical preparation; research/field study; campus or university-based work; campus or university-based leadership; civic engagement; study abroad; and overseas or domestic applied learning (Internship and Career Readiness Survey only).
