Parent Certification: My signature below certifies that I understand this request form is not a Master Promissory Note and that I must fill out, sign and submit the actual MPN. Furthermore, I understand the Office of Financial Aid will determine eligibility for Federal Direct PLUS Loans based on federal regulations. This request cannot be processed until the Office of Financial Aid has received the results of my child's 2022-2023 FAFSA data, collected the required documentation, and determined the information is correct. My child must also maintain half-time enrollment (6 credits) for the Summer, Fall and/or Spring semesters for Direct Plus funds to be disbursed. Your signature below certifies that you understand that this is a Federal Loan that must be repaid.

Things you should know before you become a William D. Ford Federal Parent Loan Borrower

William D. Ford Federal Parent Loan Borrower

Direct Plus Loans: Unsubsidized loans available to parents of Dependent students. These loans are available regardless of Financial need, and the amount of eligibility depends on the total cost of the student's education. (The cost of education {COE} includes the total amount it will cost to attend school for a semester, or an academic year). Tuition and fees, housing and food allowance, and allowances for books, supplies, transportation, loan fees are included).

Eligibility

Parent must

- ❖ Be a biological or adoptive parent, or a step-parent whose information was required on the FAFSA
- ❖ Be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen, and provide a valid Social Security Number
- ❖ Be credit worthy

Adverse Credit History

A credit history is a summary of your financial strength, including your history of paying bills and your ability to repay future loans. To qualify for a PLUS loan, you cannot have an adverse credit history. Your credit history may be considered adverse if you are experiencing any of the following credit conditions:

- 1. Bankruptcy discharge within the past five years
- 2. Voluntary surrender of personal property to avoid repossession within the last five years
- 3. Repossession of collateral within the last five years
- 4. Foreclosure proceeding started

5. Foreclosure within the last five years
6. Conveying your real property that is the subject to a mortgage (by deed) to your lender to avoid foreclosure (Deed in Lieu of Foreclosure)
7. Accounts currently 90 days or more delinquent
8. Unpaid collection accounts
9. Charge-offs/write-offs of federal student loans
10. Wage garnishment within the last five years
11. Defaulting on a loan, even if the claim has been paid
12. Lease or contract terminated by default

In the event that the parent's credit check is denied, the student can request additional Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan funds

Please Complete the following four steps:

1. The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) must be completed for the student, using the student's and parent's information
2. Direct Parent Plus Loan Processing Form: Parents are required to complete the form and return it to the Financial Aid office in order to apply for a Direct Parent Plus Loan
3. Plus Loan Entrance Counseling Session: To access the PLUS LOAN Entrance Counseling Session-GO TO: www.studentaid.gov Students and parents must log in using their own FSA ID to complete PLUS Counseling.
