

Why did I lose My TAP Award?

- TAP awards may be cancelled in instances where students are found to not be taking courses applicable to their degree based on the college catalogue they are following. This can occur mid-semester.
- You are taking a full-time course load but the courses are not applicable to the degree as indicated in your college catalogue. Therefore, always meet with an Academic Adviser to discuss your academic eligibility each term
- You are enrolled in less than 12 credits.
- You are taking not needed electives.
- You did not declare your major prior to the Major declaration deadline posted in the academic calendar and you have earned 60 credits or greater.
- You changed your major and so previously taken courses are now considered electives and you are taking coursework that has now become a not needed elective.
- Based on the TAP payment you are expected to receive you failed to meet one of the three academic progress requirements outlined in this guide.
- You are repeating a class that you have already passed. NYS aid does not allow you to retake a course you have passed in order to improve the grade unless there is a department specific GPA requirement or for additional credit (e.g. certain seminar courses).
- You may repeat a class you failed and receive TAP provided that you are meeting all of the academic progress and course applicability requirements.
- You (or your parents if dependent) are not a NYS resident.
- You earned a high school diploma outside the U.S. but did not take the ATB test by the stated deadline or failed the ATB test.
- You withdrew from your courses in the prior semester and did not earn enough credits to meet progress and pursuit requirements.
- NYS post award income verification could result in reduction or loss of award

- You did not attend courses during the semester for which you sought a TAP payment (WN grade)
- If you lose your TAP eligibility you will likely have a tuition liability with the college that will need to be repaid. Therefore, always meet with an academic advisor to choose courses and a financial aid Adviser to check that the courses are applicable for TAP.
Meet with an Academic Adviser to discuss academic criteria relevant for TAP eligibility requirements.
- Meet with a financial aid advisor to discuss non-academic criteria relevant for financial aid eligibility requirements.
- Proof of High School completion is not on file with the Office of Admissions.

How do I know if my courses are TAP eligible?

- Meet with an academic advisor (Gen Ed) and/or department (Major) advisor to determine what courses, based on your catalogue, you need to take for your degree.
- Check DegreeWorks online through the link in your CUNYfirst Student Center to see if the courses you are enrolled in are needed or not needed for your degree.
- Check your pending financial aid awards on CUNYFirst to see if you have been awarded an Initial TAP award.
- Do all of this before your bill due date.

- What are the Academic Progress Requirements for a NYS TAP award?
 - The academic guidelines for New York State (NYS) aid programs are divided into three major areas: Program Pursuit, Academic Progress and GPA. Students must meet all three sets of rules in order to be eligible to receive one or more NYS award each semester.
1. Program Pursuit— requires all students to complete a specific number of credits each semester. A course is considered completed when a grade of A+, A, A-, B-, B, B+, C-, C, C+, D-, D, D+, P (Passing), INC (incomplete) or F (Failing) is awarded at the end of the semester. Grades of W (Official Withdrawal), WU (Unofficial Withdrawal), WA (Administrative Withdrawal), WN (Never Attended) or WD (Withdrawal Drop) are not considered completed grades.
 2. Academic Progress - comprises a minimum number of credits to be accrued (earned) with a minimum cumulative grade point average in each term an award payment is received. The progress standard is most clearly presented in chart format as presented on the next folio of this guide.
 3. C Average—A student who has received two or more full years of state funded aid must have and maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 (C Average) or above.

What if I do not meet the Academic Progress Requirements for a NYS TAP award?

- You will not be eligible for TAP in the semester which you are not meeting the requirements
- You can regain eligibility by meeting the requirements for the next payment as indicated on the chart.
- You can also apply for a TAP waiver if your failure to meet the standards was due to a severe circumstance beyond your control.
- The Progress and Pursuit waiver can only be applied one-time during undergraduate study
- The waiver process is outlined online here: http://www.citytech.cuny.edu/financial-aid/docs/forms/2019-20/T4_financial_aid_eligibility_appeal_7-19.pdf
- Submission of a TAP waiver appeal does not guarantee TAP award approval.
