Brooklyn's Scariest Hotel is Back to Haunt Guests Again This Halloween

October 2, 2019–Brooklyn, NY–The Gravesend Inn, New York City College of Technology's (City Tech) high-tech haunted hotel, is back for its 21st year! Walking through the winding hallways and shadow-filled rooms, guests will uncover the curse that haunts this doomed hotel. But be careful! Some spirits will help guide you to safety, while other malevolent entities will try to steal your soul. You too might become a permanent resident of the sinister Gravesend Inn!

General admission tickets are $10, while student and group tickets are $5. Tickets are free for all City Tech students, faculty and staff with a City Tech ID on the day of the performance. Tickets are also available online.

The Gravesend Inn is produced by Theatreworks, City Tech's resident theatrical troupe, with design, construction and operating support provided by students and faculty of the College's nationally unique Entertainment Technology Department. This theme park-style Halloween attraction has been thrilling children and adults alike since 1999.
