Brooklyn's Scariest Hotel Celebrates Its 20th Anniversary!

October 4, 2018–Brooklyn, NY–The Gravesend Inn, New York City College of Technology's (City Tech) high-tech haunted hotel is back for its 20th year! This year, the spirit of a departed Native American woman has made its way through the time portal, taking guests on a skin-crawling adventure. Will you survive? Not everyone who checks into the Gravesend Inn makes it out alive!

General admission tickets are $10, while student and group tickets are $5. Tickets are free for all City Tech students, faculty and staff with a City Tech ID on the day of the performance. This year, tickets are also available online.

The Gravesend Inn is produced by Theatreworks, City Tech's resident theatrical troupe, with design, construction and operating support provided by students and faculty of the College's nationally unique Entertainment Technology Department. This theme park-style Halloween attraction has been thrilling children and adults alike since 1999.

For further information, please call (718) 260-5588 during regular business hours. For recorded information only, call (718) 260-5592.
